- vi. Chris Shoemaker (YALS President-Elect) will speak on “What Today’s Librarian Need to Know About Teens in Technology.”
- vii. Erin has contacted River Run Books—We’ll have Flume, Isinglass and Brendan Halpin’s books for sale. Kirsten will check in with our venue coordinator to see if we can set up book sale in hallway.
- viii. Coordinate Caterer—Kirsten has contacted liberty lane catering (formerly Galley Hatch Catering), who will be doing box lunches for us (10.25 or 11.95). Check nonprofit status for YALS to see if discount is available. We will have to over order by a couple of box lunches to compensate for late registration forms.
- ix. Site Visit—Kirsten and Kathy went in June-We will be in the Levinson Room.
- x. Raffle: Kindle Paperwhite ($139)—Kirsten will pick up the week of conference.
- xi. Ann will put together a survey for the conference. She will do a digital and paper copy and have it available during conference and then send it out afterward to optimize responses.
- xii. Book Review: Will need a table inside the conference room for the book review.
- xiii. Name tags: Allison will print out nametags.
- xiv. Schedule for day: Posted on registration form.

- Summer Programming Ideas to Share--

Mini Golf in library, Cosplay, Dr. Who Party, Pizza Party and Book Swap, Chinese Calligraphy, Graffiti Art, Rock Concert in Park, Frozen T-Shirt, Take Apart Technology Day, Todd Brodeur—ultimate frisby, Dinner and a Movie, Book Jacket Bingo, Hide and Seek Lock In.

Received donations from Cinemagic, Loon Mountain, Pat’s Peak, Water Country, Canobie Lake, Granite State Credit Union.

Mixed bag this summer. Some had more than previous years, some less. Possibly more camps happening at the same time?
